

Astor lounge

Conference room

DAY 1 Monday 19 January 2015 - depart Fremantle 5pm

afternoon?

3pm?

4pm?

5pm

6pm

8pm

boarding

all aboard

assembly drill - time to advised leave Fremantle 5pm

dinner

MEET and GREET - speaker introductions and maybe connect those with shared research interests

DAY 2 - Tuesday 20 January 2015 - at sea

8.45am			Welcome and notices
9.00am	9.50am	50mins	Ireland of the ancestors: maps, documents, valuations, diaries, books, parish registers - R. Reid
10am	10.50am	50mins	Finding your West Australian ancestors: a guide to the records - M. Murray	Starting German family history research - E. Kopittke
10.50am	11.20am	30mins		break
11.20am	12.10pm	50mins	Beyond parish registers: lesser known English records from the 18th and 19th centuries - L. Silvester
12.10pm	1.30pm	80mins		lunch break
1.30pm	2.20pm	50mins	Gallipoli medical - H. Smith
2.30pm	3.20pm	50mins	Trenches, memorials and bits of metal: the Anzac area of Gallipoli today - R. Reid – open to public
3.20pm	3.50pm	30mins		break
3.50pm	4.20pm	30mins		WAGS WWI projects: Gallipoli Dead and 11th Battalion (Cheops) projects - L. Fitzpatrick
4.25pm	5pm	35mins		Using electoral rolls for genealogy: tips and traps - R. Kopittke
5pm	5.45pm	45mins		Research Help Zone - bookshop
6pm				dinner
8pm	8.50pm	50mins		The Online Detective: improving your online search skills - M. Murray

DAY 3 - Wednesday 21 January 2015 - Esperance 9.00am - 5pm

8am				arrive 9.00am
			Shore tours and informal Research Help on ship
				leave 5pm (back on ship 4pm)
4.15pm	5pm	45mins		Research Help Zone - bookshop
5pm	5.45pm	45mins		uncommitted – extra talk if needed
6pm				dinner
8pm	8.50pm	50mins		'There is no person starving here': Australia, Ireland and the Great Famine, 1845-50 - R. Reid

DAY 4 - Thursday 22 January 2015 - Albany 9.00am - 10pm

8am				arrive 9.00am
			Shore tours and informal Research Help on ship
				leave 10pm (back on ship 6pm - 9pm)
5pm	5.45pm	45mins		Research Help Zone - bookshop
6pm				dinner
8pm	8.50pm	50mins		Online newspapers: finding out what happened in the 'dash' - R. Kopittke

DAY 5 - Friday 23 January 2015 - at sea

9.00am	9.40am	40mins	Getting the most out of Google - R. Kopittke	In the steps of my ancestor: planning a genealogical trip? How to prepare. Where to go. How to get organised - E. Kopittke
9.50am	10.40am	50mins	'Jake's War' - daily life in WW1 - L. Silvester	1918 influenza pandemic - H. Smith
10.40am	11.10am	30mins		break
11.10am	12noon	40mins	That treeless, shell-torn wilderness': Australian experience on the Western Front, France and Belgium, 1916-1918 - R. Reid
12noon	1pm	60mins		lunch break
1pm	1.50pm	50mins	'When this bloody war is over' - WW1 songs sung in the trenches - M. Murray & L. Silvester
2pm	2.50pm	50mins	Documents of death - H. Smith	German records - what can I find? - E. Kopittke
2.50pm	3.20pm	30mins		break
3.20pm	4.10pm	50mins		Finding Rhoda: Scottish records, WA Group Settlement and tracing people today - M. Murray
4.15pm	5.00pm	45mins		Cemetery symbolism - H. Smith
5pm	5.45pm	45mins		Research Help Zone - bookshop
6pm				dinner
8pm				TBA Windup and prizes

DAY 6 - Saturday 24 January 2015 - arrive Fremantle 7am

6am				arrive Fremantle 7am
-----	--	--	--	----------------------